Why do you want to join EDC

I don't wanna work under some person for throughout my life after college. I want to lead a group of my own interest and which works on application of topics of my interest. I want to do something different than just face an interview just as you are begging for a job. And EDC is surely the best platform available most easily to me to learn the know-hows of start ups and business by even getting a chance to personally interacting to Big Business Entrepreneur.
